

The Sixth Sense: Helping Peers Understand Your Child and Autism

Lyn Becker, M.S. Ed,
parent of a child with autism,
ASACIC professional board member

This training will prepare you to be your child's own best advocate by teaching you how to introduce general education peers to the challenges and gifts associated with autism. This is a great way to get your child's school year off to a great start by increasing potential for acceptance and friendships and decreasing the likelihood of bullying.

Saturday, August 7

9 am to noon

St. John's Lutheran Church, Chatham, IL
